

"The difference between the right word and the almost right word is the difference between lightning and a lightning bug." Mark Twain

Writer's Workshop Week

Two separate sessions

July 18 - 21 and July 25 - 28

At the School of St. Elizabeth

9:30 am to 12:30 pm

Open to students entering 6th, 7th, and 8th grades

$125.00 (limited space)

Spend the week producing a portfolio of your own.

Use technology to display writing in a variety of formats.

Engage in activities that turn the chore of writing into the pleasure of creating.

Concentrate on expository writing

Find success in all your writing efforts.

Mr. James Peralta, a middle school language arts and enrichment teacher, and Mrs. Brandt, a former weekly newspaper editor, look forward to sharing the week with students and working together to produce a diverse collection of written work.
